

R.E. Sunday – June 14 – The Village in its Finest Form

Across our denomination, R.E. Sunday is often scheduled for the second Sunday in June. This is a service that focuses on our children, youth, and their teachers. It is the culmination of the year's religious education program where the service ranges from the youngest ones coming forward, eager or timid to share our Chalice Lighting; to the middle school youth offering some answers to life's mysteries; to the senior high youth sharing their faith in action; to a high school senior bridging into young adulthood. It's also a time when we honor the 15 adults who made these R.E. experiences happen.

One of the intentions of R.E. Sunday is to narrow the divide that sometimes exists between the community of adults who attend the adult worship service and the children and teachers who are in R.E. classes during that time.

It is the village in its finest form! Even if you don't have a child or youth in the R.E. program, please join us anyway and let us walk together as an intentional multigenerational community.

There will be only one service at 10 a.m. on June 14th.

This Sunday, please help me welcome our "Guest in the Pulpit" Emily de Tar who will be preaching on "The Emerging Unknown." Emily graduates tomorrow from Union Theological Seminary in the city of New York. Come to UUCHV this Sunday to welcome and congratulate her!

In Fellowship,
Jane Podell, Director of Religious Education